

VANUATU LAW COMMISSION

PO Box 3380
Port Vila, Vanuatu
Tel: (678) 26229
Fax: (678) 26467

COMMISSION DES LOIS DE VANUATU

Boîte postale 3380
Port-Vila, Vanuatu
Tél : (678) 26 229
Fax : (678) 26 467

MEDIA RELEASE

VANUATU LAW COMMISSION FAREWELLS FIRST EVER STAFF MEMBER

Thursday 15 March 2012

The Vanuatu Law Commission (VLC) will this week farewell their first ever staff member, Ms Megan Taylor, from her position as Senior Legal Research Officer with the Vanuatu Law Commission.

Ms Taylor joined the VLC in November of 2010 as part of the Australian Youth Ambassador for Development Program.

Secretary of the VLC, Mrs Bertha Pakoasongi, said her achievements and contributions to the establishment of the VLC were outstanding.

“Ms Taylor joined the Vanuatu Law Commission at a time where there was no staff, and she was critical in the appointment of the first Secretary, establishing an office and office procedures and providing training and technical advice on legal research and developing law reform processes.”

Mrs Pakoasongi added “We are incredibly grateful for the work of Ms Taylor, which will go on to guide the operations of the Vanuatu Law Commission.”

“We wish Ms Taylor all the very best in her future endeavours.”

<<ENDS>>

The Vanuatu Law Commission is an independent statutory body funded by the Government of Vanuatu to study and keep under review the laws of Vanuatu and recommend reforms where needed. Visit us at www.lawcommission.gov.vu.

Review. Recommend. Reform.